

01

Card 1: Finish my level

Your friend says, "Give me your password and I'll finish your game level while you're at soccer practice."

What do you do?

02

Card 2: One password for everything

Maya uses the same password for her school account, her game and her tablet.

What could go wrong, and what should she do?

03

Card 3: Tricky or long?

Jordan's choices: P@ssw0rd1 or canoe-jelly-parrot-glacier.

Which is stronger, and why?

04

Card 4: Someone watching

While you type your password in the library, an older student leans over your shoulder and watches.

What do you do?

05

Card 5: Dog-name password

A website says, "Make a password." Your first idea is your dog's name plus your birthday.

Is that a good choice?

06

Card 6: Sticky note

Your classmate wrote their password on a sticky note on the back of their Chromebook.

What would you tell them?

07

Card 7: The game had a problem

Your family gets an email from a game you play: it had a security problem and everyone should change their password. You used the same password for your school account.

What do you do?

08

Card 8: Level-up offer

A friend's older cousin says he can unlock special items in your game if you give him your login.

What do you do?

09

Card 9: Forgot it

You forgot your school password and the screen says you have a few tries left.

What do you do?

10

Card 10: Password to watch a video

A website with funny videos pops up a box:
"Type your school email password to keep watching."
